

HUANG DING 9

BERNARD MAGREZ

The estate is located in the picturesque area of the Xi Xia royal tombs dated 1038, in Ningxia, China. In 2021, the estate was classified as a Grands Crus Classés in the wine-growing region of the eastern Helan Mountains, in Ningxia Province.

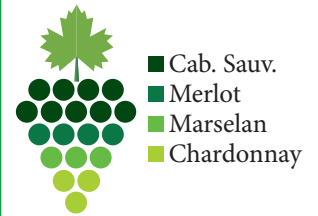

APPELLATION

SOIL TYPE

Sand and gravel

GRAPE VARIETIES

ASSEMBLY

■ 100% Cab. Sauv.

ANNUAL YIELD

■ 3 125 Hl/Ha

FOOD AND WINE PAIRING

Red meats,
Cheese platter

TASTING

EYE

Deep, intense and brilliant red

NOSE

Complex aromas of ripe black fruit and rich spices

MOUTH

Full and rich, with deep blackberry of blackberry, blackcurrant and red berries, with subtle notes of pepper and coffee.

VINEYARD MANAGEMENT

- Pruning begins in mid to late October.
- In early to mid-November, the vines are buried for the winter. In March, the vines are dug up. In April, disbudding. Flowering at the end of May. Mid-July, veraison and early October, harvest.

VINIFICATION

- Hand-picked
- Transfer to vats for maceration at 20°C
- Transfer to a stainless steel vat for malolactic fermentation
- Aged for 24 months in barrels

